This drawing is conceptual in nature and is subject to change. No warranties or representations, expressed or implied concerning the actual design, location, or character of this plan are intended. The Contractor agrees, during the performance of the work, to comply with all applicable codes and ordinances of the appropriate City, County or State of Texas as they may apply, as these laws may now read or as they may hereafter be changed or amended.