Except for hearing dates, which may only be modified by order upon proper motion, any of the foregoing deadlines may be modified without further order by filing a written agreement of all parties.

Marking Exhibits. Exhibits should be numbered sequentially, preceded by the party name or abbreviation. For example, the executive director's exhibits should be labeled Executive Director Exhibit 1, 2, etc., or ED Ex. 1, 2, etc.; the applicant's exhibits should be labeled Fort Worth exhibits 1, 2, etc., or FW Ex. 1, 2, etc.; and so on for each party. Exhibits should not be marked by witness name. Multipage documents shall be paginated or Bates-stamped. As a general rule, attachments to testimony should be marked as such, and not as a separate exhibit. For example, the executive director files the testimony of John Doe, which includes attachments A-F. This should be labeled ED Ex. 1 (John Doe). Attachments A-F should not be separately marked or offered.
