What Happens After A Claim Is Filed?

Once a claim is received, an in-house adjuster is assigned to conduct an investigation. However, a third party contractor for the City may perform the investigation or assess damages. Until a final decision is made on a claim, any statement or offer made concerning your claim by any City employee or its agent is unauthorized and not binding on the City. Final approval or denial will be conveyed to you by the adjuster assigned to you claim.

Also, by filing a claim, you agree to allow the city or its agent to inspect your property or to investigate the personal injury. Unreasonable refusal of such inspection or investigation may be grounds for denial of your claim.

If the City’s investigation determines a different party may be responsible, the City will notify the claimant so the claimant may take appropriate steps.
