

Come learn with us!

Water Conservation 2022 Classes & Events

Fort Worth Water and its partners offer classes to help improve water efficiency while maintaining beautiful and healthy landscaping and gardens.

Water Saving Seminars

Seminars, including new topics taught by Rooted In experts, from 6-8 p.m. at BRIT, 1700 University Dr. Registration opens one month before each class at SaveFortWorthWater.org.

| | |
|----------|------------------------------|
| Feb. 10 | Landscape Design Basics |
| Mar. 10 | FoodScaping: Eat the Yard |
| April 14 | Sprinkler Systems 101 |
| May 12 | Plant Combos & Companions |
| June 9 | Houseplant "Horti-couture" |
| July 14 | Sprinkler System 201 |
| Aug. 11 | Native Plant Design |
| Sept. 8 | Dig Into Composting |
| Oct. 13 | Wildlife Friendly Landscapes |

Library Water Conservation Classes

Seminars taught by Rooted In experts begin at 10:30 a.m.
No registration required. Get class descriptions online.

| | | |
|----------|-------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Mar. 12 | Your Better Yard: Part One | Southwest Regional Library |
| Mar. 19 | Your Better Yard: Part Two | Golden Triangle Library |
| April 9 | Sprinkler Spruce Up | Southwest Regional Library |
| April 16 | Sprinkler Spruce Up | Golden Triangle Library |
| May 14 | Lawn Care: Green with Envy | Summer Glen Library |
| June 11 | Cool Off with Shade Gardening | East Regional Library |
| Oct. 8 | Butterfly Gardening | Ridglea Library |
| Nov. 12 | Trees for Texas | Northwest Library |

Irrigation 101 Virtual Workshops

These virtual online workshops begin at 6 p.m. The one-hour class, followed by a live Q&A session sponsored by TRWD, is taught by Dr. Dotty Woodson.

Jan. 18 or Feb. 15 Register for either online class at SaveFortWorthWater.org.